

In response to the letter, I think K-Love has been passing the positive messages and encouragements to the local community thorough the radio. I listen to K-love daily when I am driving my car, at work, and all of my co-workers listen to K-Love too. We all being encouraged and I think that's a quite of public interest there.